Christina Fritsch, J.D. of CLIENTSFirst Consulting Has Been Inducted as Fellow of the College of Law Practice Management

ATLANTA, GA (October 30, 2017) -- Christina Fritsch, President and Founder of CLIENTSFirst Consulting LLC, has been inducted as a Fellow of the College of Law Practice Management during the College's Futures Conference in Atlanta, Georgia.

The College of Law Practice Management is an honorary organization made up of individuals who have made significant and sustained contributions to the field of law practice management over a period of years. The College formally recognizes lawyers, law school professors, administrators, consultants, officers of the government, access to justice professionals and others whose work has significantly contributed to and enhanced law practice management, its literature, its procedures and its philosophy through dedicated service, published writings, teaching and lecturing and/or through demonstrated excellence in law practice management.

Fellows of the College of Law Practice Management are distinguished law practice management professionals who represent law firms, educational institutions, professional associations and other organizations that contribute to excellence in law practice management. Fellows are nominated by their peers each year and elected by the College Board of Trustees. Currently, there are nearly 250 Fellows around the world.

Induction into the College recognizes Fritsch's exemplary professional standards and achievements as a law firm consultant. A former lawyer, Fritsch has been consulting in the legal industry for more than 15 years and is a recognized expert in Client Relationship Management (CRM) technology applications for law firms and frequently writes and speaks on CRM and related topics.

CLIENTSFirst Consulting LLC was founded by Fritsch in 2007 to help professional services firms and other organizations achieve success with Customer Relationship Management (CRM), eMarketing, Data Quality and Client Intelligence services. The firm provides consulting services and solutions tailored to help their clients utilize technology and data to enhance their marketing and business development efforts and help them grow.
